

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, One God. Amen.

St. Mary's Coptic Orthodox Youth Forum

When: Friday June 25th, 7:30 pm

For whom: Youth & Young Adults (14-18; 19-25; 26-35). Open to high school, college, post-graduate, professionals and young married couples.

Purpose: To create an opportunity for Spiritual fellowship and unity amongst God's youth through open dialogue and ongoing conversation regarding the Youth members' needs, suggestions, and opinions on related issues. The aim is to provide a space for brainstorming, collaboration and discussion surrounding important decisions effecting the youth with the board member who represents them on the Church Board.

The group's prayers are vital to the success of both the Youth Forum, its developments and the realization of the will of God in each of our lives, and the Church community as a whole. The forum functions as a place to professionally, respectfully and open-mindedly share thoughts regarding the presented agenda items and suggestions for future topics which can be opened in later forum meetings.

Meeting Agenda for June 25th:

How does the "Church Board" process work?

How are decisions reached by the Church Board?

How is the youth represented in the Church Board?

How can suggestions by the youth community be presented to the Church Board?

What is the role of the youth in the church?

What are the issues that the youth want to deal with?

What are the ways in which we can present ideas/suggestions as points of discussion in the future Youth Forums?

General suggestions made by the youth attendees
